Music: Christmas, medium tempo

Woman: Women like pretty things. We also like pretty unmentionables.

(quickly, like she feels awkward) I don't want to mention these unmentionables but I must mention them so that gift givers this Christmas know, without me mentioning it, that I would like some brand new, nice, pretty unmentionables. I use these pretty unmentionables every day; they make me feel special and beautiful! Also did I mention that women like pretty things?

ANNCR: For exceptional service in choosing her Christmas gift drop into Victoria's Attic Downtown.

Woman: Oh honey you shouldn't have!

Man: (quick, almost over her line) Don't mention it.

ANNCR: (picks up immediately after Man VO)
